

Brisbane City Football Club - General Club Policies 2

Team Manager Policy

Each team will have a Team Manager in place.

Team Managers will serve in the appointed role for a maximum tenure of 12 months.

At the end of the 12 month period, a new Team Manger will be appointed.

Any passwords giving access to any Apps or Database used by the Team Manager throughout the season will be provided to the club's Operation Manager and/or newly appointed Team Manager at the end of the tenure.

User Paid Sessions Policy

Cancellation of any private session requires a minimum of 24 hours notice.

Cancellation of any session within this period will result in the forfeiting of that session with no reimbursement.

If a player misses a session without notice, that opportunity will be forfeited.

If a session is cancelled due to weather or for any other reason by way of a cancellation by Brisbane City Football Club, an alternate time for that session will be arranged with the affected parties.

Girls Football Policy

As standard practice, girls will play in girls only teams.

In rare occasions, girls maybe asked to play in boys teams on an ad-hoc basis at the discretion of the Coach and/or Technical Director. This will be clearly communicated to the player and their parent/guardian as will the reasons for the move.

Payment Policy

No pay, no play.

If players are not paid up in full they will not receive their kit and will not be eligible to play.

Coach / Parent Relationship Policy

Your professional relationship may be compromised if you:

- Allow parents to join your personal social networking site or accept player invitations to join theirs.
- Attend parties or socialise with players.
- Invite a player back to your home or attend their home without an appropriate professional reason and without the consent of their parent or carer.
- Transport a player in your car without prior approval from a supervisor and a parent or carer.

The boundaries of the professional relationship will be breached if you:
